

List of WADA ISL-Trained Assessors

The list below contains the names of assessors who attended the WADA 2019 training course for the International Standard for Laboratories (ISL) v.10.0 and its relevant Technical Documents (TDs). Accreditation bodies seeking to utilize the expertise of one of these assessors should be aware that the role usually performed by these individuals, within an assessment team, may vary, and therefore the role of the assessor should be clarified in the initial stages of any discussions.
